Ministers. The former is a full expess of the Hinisters. The former is a full expose of the Block Warrior case, and the latter shows the policy that car State Department proposes to pursue in the adjustment of our difficulties with Spain. There are also two or three brief notes lrom Mr. Soule to Mr. Marcy.

It cannot be disguised that shere is an import ant difference of views between our Department of State and our Foreign Ministers. The latter are for prompt measures of re-ress; the former ropeaes still farther forbenrance and negotiation. The correspondence was only invnished at the to an issue without the action of the Congress of the United States; and they will no act without the support of the country.

We shall give the remaining documents to on eaders at our earliest convenience.
